DKSH drives Eversys espresso machine sales in Asia

DKSH, the leading Market Expansion Services provider with a focus on Asia Pacific, and Eversys, a manufacturer of super automatic espresso machines, have signed a distribution agreement for Australia, China, Malaysia, New Zealand, Philippines, Taiwan, Thailand, and Vietnam,.

Zurich, Switzerland, April 18, 2017 – DKSH Business Unit Technology, a leading Market Expansion Services provider for technology companies, and Eversys have signed a regional distribution agreement to provide Eversys with marketing, sales, distribution and after-sales services for its full range of super automatic espresso machines.

Eversys provides an integrated vertical product range that promotes super-automatic espresso solutions to the level of traditional equipment. It offers both the quality and all of the benefits of traditional Barista practices delivered through electronic intelligence. All Eversys machines are designed and built in modular format for efficient servicing to ensure minimum down-time and operational continuity. The machines are designed with the environment in mind, using readily recycled material and require minimum energy. On top, all machines in the Eversys' range can be accessed and programmed easily to fit the bespoke nature of your business.

Kamal Bengougam, Eversys Chief Commercial Officer, commented: "DKSH has a strong reputation in marketing and sales of leading brands of hospitality equipment. We believe that through DKSH's industry expertise, local connections and product knowledge, we can grow Eversys to the next level across Asia Pacific."

Hanno Elbraechter, Head Business Unit Technology, DKSH, commented: "It is a great honor to partner with Eversys. Thanks to our unmatched footprint in Asia Pacific, we can leverage our size, experience and industry know-how to provide total solutions and exceptional distribution opportunities for Eversys and help to grow their business."

About Eversys

The Vision of Eversys is to develop innovative solutions, leading edge espresso machines that make a real difference to consumers and business owners. By promoting super-automatic espresso machines to the level of traditional equipment, Eversys provides consumers with compelling in-cup experiences and business owners with the tools to optimize revenues, control costs and manage their asset base through telemetry. The Mission of Eversys is to evangelize its concept of the e'Barista, to promote leading edge in-cup experience-espresso as well as milk-based products, without constraints linked to space, productivity, consistency and people.
